SEE HOW DONORS ACTIVATE STUDENT SUCCESS

Did you know that 76.4 percent of undergraduates who entered Drexel in Fall 2018 received need-based financial aid? The average amount was $29,094.

If you haven't thought about how profoundly scholarships can shape lives, listen to this talk by of Jeechieu Ta '21, a third-year student in Drexel University College of Engineering, who spoke at our annual Celebration of Scholarship in April.

"With your help, students like me can get an amazing education, both in and out of the classroom, and achieve our dreams." — Jeechieu Ta '21

Fully 99.9 percent of incoming students receive some form of financial aid in the form of grants, loans and/or work study. You can make a difference!
