

JUNE 2022

Through enthusiastic support from alumni, faculty, staff, students, parents, community members and corporate and foundation partners, The Campaign for Drexel reaches its record-breaking conclusion on Thursday, June 30. The University celebrates the extraordinary commitment of friends, like you, who have helped The Future Is a Place We Make reach this remarkable milestone. Your impact is profound — propelling the aspirations of our students and securing Drexel's future as an innovative leader in higher education. With a handful of days left to support the Campaign and Drexel's future, your continued partnership can create more opportunities and change more lives.

Join us as we cross the finish line!

ALT TAG: Ca

Campaign Progress

As the new academic year begins, your support for Campaign priorities such as scholarships and professorships, co-op opportunities, research and curricular innovation is essential to further propel Drexel's success and impact. Your commitment directly fuels the University's capacity to prepare students for academic and professional success, create solutions to urgent societal challenges, and affect positive change for communities in Philadelphia and beyond.

To date, supporters — including more than 40,000 alumni — have helped advance Drexel through donations, volunteering, mentoring students and attending events.

SEE THE RESULTS

ALT TAG: Ronald W. Disney '72 and his wife Kathleen with Drexel students and Brian Ellis, PhD.

Pledge Advances Underrepresented Students and Civic Partnerships

A far-ranging pledge by Ronald '72 and Kathleen Disney will promote diversity, equity and inclusion and provide scholarship funds and program support for students from underrepresented backgrounds, primarily at Drexel's Bennett S. LeBow College of Business. The donation also provides financial support to a mentoring program for public school students in West Philadelphia, research on hunger and poverty in the Philadelphia region, and mental health and well-being counseling and programming for Drexel students.

ALT TAG: Fashion design lab at DrexelUniversity

Gift Helps Design Students Launch Creative Careers

A significant gift from Richard A. Hayne, vice chair of Drexel's board of trustees and founder and chief executive of Urban Outfitters, will support student success across Drexel, including the creation of an experiential learning program that will prepare fashion design, interior design and product design students at the Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts & Design for careers in retail.

READ THE STORY

ALT TAG: Group of students working together.

Westphal Family Gift Supports Innovative and Immersive Learning

A generous gift from Jeffrey and Jenifer Westphal made in honor of his father, Rainer (Ray) J. Westphal '59, HD '02, will create new experiences for students and help to advance critical areas of the University's strategic plan, "Drexel 2030: Designing the Future."

READ THE STORY 